Pastor Gary's Thoughts for September

Each September is normally a time of change as children and grandchildren are becoming reacquainted with the routines of back to school. Here on our campus at Calvary, Lea's Christian School has resumed after summer break. So how do you enjoy change?

I recently changed our internet provider because of increasing rates but not all of that change has gone smoothly. As of today, our home telephone still is not working until a tech can come tomorrow to fix the problem. This problem is a result of change.

Here at Calvary we are again awaiting change. If you can believe it, it was last year at this time that Calvary went through a major change which resulted in me becoming your interim pastor for this past year. How the time has flown. Thank you so much for graciously putting up with me during this year of change. Now we gather in prayer asking God to provide Calvary with the shepherd he has in mind for you all.

I hope that each of you keep this Call process in your daily prayers. I trust that this change will be just what Calvary needs and what each one of you need as you grow in your Christian faith. I know that Gloria and I keep this in our prayers every morning during our devotional time. God has blessed Calvary with so many blessings and I trust that He will continue to bless Calvary with new vitality and the vision God has in mind for the greater San Lorenzo area.

During the coming months as we wait for God's plans to unfold, I look forward to worshipping with each of you regularly and will continue to pray for you. Don't forget to join in a Bible study group led by Elders Dave Schultz and Dave Mueller. Those classes begin next Sunday, September 9th at 10:15AM.

Everyone is welcome and encouraged to participate. Say a prayer for the person who will receive the quilt. Pick a thread and make a knot. The threads will hold multiple knots (and prayers). Include this person in your regular prayers.
